

Will you use optical design tools for your thesis or work?

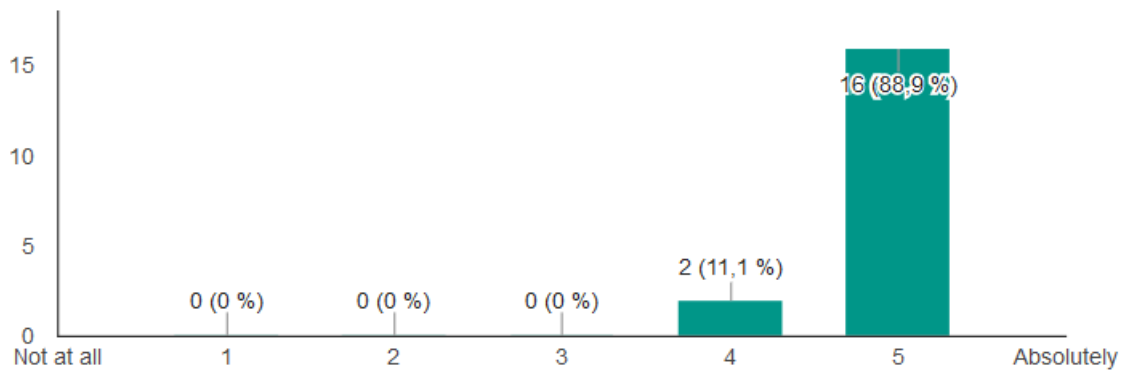

How would you rate the lectures?

How would you rate the exercises?

Would you recommend the course to someone interested in optical design?

Would you like to see more similar courses to be organised at your university (i.e. short intensive courses on specific subjects like this one) ?

